John Chung, Esq. CPA

President and Executive Partner

Professional Experience

John is the president and executive partner at JC&Company LLP. He has over 10 years of experience in providing professional tax and estate planning services.

John has served a diverse base of both individual and corporate clients in international consumer market, manufacturing industries and financial services. His strong tax experience includes tax planning for high net worth individuals (i.e. trust setup and estate planning, FBAR / FATCA), especially for those having multi-national presence and assets, advising on a full spectrum of individual and corporate tax matters including international tax, cross-border M&A, tax due diligence, consolidated entity issues, IRS audit representation and others.

Appointed by Mayor Sukhee Kang, John is currently serving in the investment advisory committee of the City of Irvine, which oversees the management of the City's pension and investment portfolio.

John is a regular and prominent speaker at various tax conferences sponsored by Korean business organizations including the Korean Chamber of Commerce, Korea International Trade Association, Federation of Korean Industries, and Korean National Tax Service

Professional Affiliations

John is a licensed attorney and a member of the American Bar Association and California Bar Association. He is also a certified public accountant and a member of the AICPA and the California Board of Certified Public Accountants.

Prior to joining JC&Company, John worked for seven years at international tax department of KPMG, and as a financial analyst at JP Morgan & Co.

Education

John obtained his J.D. from Loyola Law School of Los Angeles and received Master of Professional Accounting degree from University of Texas at Austin. He graduated from Seoul National University with his B.S. degree in Economics.
