

Name: Lukas Beech
Title: Director, HR Services
Company name: Nowak & Partner

Bio

Mr. Beech was raised in Germany and New Zealand, where he graduated from the University of Victoria before completing his formal education at the University of Hamburg, Germany, with a "Diplom". Comfortable with communicating in both English and German, Mr. Beech was a founding member of the New Zealand Chamber of Commerce in Korea, where he also served as the Vice Chairman, while actively contributing to other international chambers of commerce in Korea.

Mr. Beech is married, his wife is a professor of music and he describes himself as a "local foreigner", having not only made Korea his home but actively engaging with the family and cultural life of Korea.

Since 2005, Mr. Beech has specialized in supporting European and North American companies that have business operations in Korea or who are entering this market with Human Resource solutions. Mr. Beech is specialized in placing strategically impactful Korean professionals into the local operations of international companies, where their contribution leads to a specific business outcome.

Such positions include Country General Management roles, engineering and technical sales, B2B & B2C marketing & sales, finance, logistics and operational positions gaining considerable expertise in the consultation of clients about their strategic human resource requirements, Mr. Beech has fine-tuned a process of targeted search that yields a high success rate well above the industry norm.