

Paul Cho
Vice President / Lead Counsel
GM Korea Company

Paul Cho is Vice President and Lead Counsel for GM Korea Company. Paul is on GM Korea's Executive Committee and heads the company's Legal Department, which has responsibilities not only covering Korea but affiliated operations.

Paul serves as a Co-Chair on AMCHAM's HR Committee and was a Senior Partner/Co-Chair of the Labor and Employment Team at Lee & Ko and prior thereto, Co-Chair of the Labor and Employment Practice Group at Kim & Chang. He has been recognized by legal publications and the market for years as an expert in the field of labor and employment, particularly with respect to mergers & acquisitions, restructuring programs and crisis management for multinational companies.

For his efforts, Paul has been recognized as a Leading Individual in Employment by Chambers Asia Pacific, Euromoney Publications PLC's Guide to the World's Leading Labour and Employment Lawyers, Who's Who in Labour and Employment, AsiaLaw's Leading Lawyers for Labour and Employment, and Legal 500 Asia Pacific. Paul has also served on the Board of Directors at Seoul Foreign School from 2008 through 2014.

In his spare time, Paul enjoys playing golf and tennis and cheering for his hometown Chicago Cubs. Paul received his J.D. from Loyola University of Chicago School of Law and B.A. in Economics from the University of Illinois, Urbana-Champaign.