

Will Gibson

M&A Underwriter
AIG Asia Pacific

Will is a regional underwriter for AIG's Asia Pacific Mergers & Acquisitions team, based in Hong Kong. He joined AIG in August 2017 to work on underwriting W&I insurance policies on deals across the region including Japan, Korea and China, as well as SE Asia and Australia. Will originally trained and practised as corporate lawyer at the major international law firm, Norton Rose (now Norton Rose Fulbright LLP). In 2006 Will then joined the UK Government to work on major corporate transactions, first as a legal advisor and then at the Shareholder Executive (now UK Government Investments), the UK Government's shareholder function and specialist M&A and corporate finance advisors. Over eight years, Will advised Government Ministers from all of the three major UK political parties across a range of major corporate transactions. Will relocated to Hong Kong in 2014 where he worked as an independent strategic, corporate finance and M&A advisor to a range of businesses, immediately prior to joining AIG. Will studied Politics, Philosophy and Economics at St. Peter's College of the University of Oxford, before completing his Common Professional Examination and Legal Practice Course at the College of Law in London.
