

Mr Steve Duckworth is a Senior Partner with ERM in North Asia and has over 30 year's experience in Waste and Environmental, Health and Safety (EHS) management in Europe and Asia. He is a Chartered Waste Manager with the United Kingdom's Institute of Wastes Management and an Associate Member of the Society of Petroleum Engineers. Steve was the Korea Country Manager for ERM for over 7 years.

Steve has Directed or worked on numerous environmental, social and safety projects in Asia and internationally within the power sector including EHS due-diligence and compliance assessments, ESIA's, Phase II site investigations for clients including POSCO, Samtan, China Light & Power, Hong Kong Electric, Macquarie, Bechtel, Sithe Energies, Tractebel, GDF Suez (GLOW), Edison Mission, One Energy, Hemeraj Power and Thailand's National Energy Policy Office (NEPO).

Steve graduated from Lancaster University in the UK with a BSc (Hons) in Environmental Sciences.