

Acting Deputy Executive Director Maya Kamar
US Customs and Border Protection

Maya Kamar serves as the Acting Deputy Executive Director for the Trade Remedy Law Enforcement Directorate at U.S. Customs and Border Protection, where she is responsible for threat assessment units, enforcement programs focused on detecting, deterring and disrupting illicit trade with special emphasis on environmental law violations.

Previously, Ms. Kamar was the Director for the Textile and Trade Agreements Division at U.S Customs and Border Protection. She was responsible for policies and initiatives that enabled the flow of legitimate trade in accordance with Trade Agreements US laws.

Ms. Kamar has over 24 years of experience in international customs related matters as she began her career with US Customs in 1998 and maintained a variety of leadership roles throughout her career.