

AMCHAM Cybersecurity Seminar
	성함 Name	국문	권현영	직책 Title	Korean	교수
		English	Hun-Yeong Kwon		English	Professor
	회사명 Company	국문	고려대학교 정보보호대학원
		English	Korea University, School of Cybersecurity
발표 주제 (Topic)	국문	기업 리스크에서 국가 리스크로: 사이버 보안에 대한 인식의 변화
	English	Company Risk to National Risk: Evolving Perspectives on Cybersecurity
약력 Biography (Less than 500 Words)
Prof. Kwon is a Professor of the School of Cybersecurity at Korea University. He was the Director of the Information Security Division of the Presidential Committee on the Digital Platform Government. He has a PhD in Administrative Law from Yonsei University. He served as a researcher at the Korea Information Society Development Institute from 1997 to 2001 and at the National Information Society Agency from 2002 to 2008. He served as a professor at Kwangwoon University from 2008 to 2015. Since 2015, he has been working at Korea University. He is a legal expert in the digital field who has conducted extensive research and lectures on integrated cyber law and policy that encompasses technology and security, and has been engaged in a wide range of activities to respond to digital innovation and its dysfunctions. In particular, he focuses on the national utilization and protection of public works and public data, and information protection on digital platforms. He has served as a member of the Presidential Advisory Special Committee on E-government (2002–2006), Chair of the Legal System Special Committee of the Government 3.0 Promotion Committee under the Prime Minister (2014–2017), and member of the Data Special Committee of the 4th Industrial Revolution Committee (2021–2022). Since 2024, he has been serving as the Chair of the Digital Government Innovation Committee.						