Han Jun Chon is a Chartered Accountant at Kim & Chang who practices primarily in finance tax and general tax consulting with 30 years of experience in a wide range of tax law areas and industries in both Australia and Korea.

In Korea where he has practiced tax since 2002, Mr. Chon specializes in providing tax consulting services to multinational foreign financial institutions with a particular focus on capital markets and investment management including private equity. He has extensive experience in advising foreign banks, securities companies, asset management companies and insurance companies on all aspects of Korean tax including general tax advice, tax audit, tax appeal and transfer pricing.

On the private equity front, Mr. Chon has worked closely with various international and local private equity groups in providing tax advice on fund structuring, acquisition and exit and tax due diligence of Korean companies.

Prior to joining Kim & Chang, Mr. Chon was a tax partner of Samil PwC from July 2006 to November 2014 and has also worked in PwC Sydney for over 11 years before relocating to Korea in late 2002.
