

Dawn M. Stark, CFRE, MBA

Dawn M. Stark is a senior development professional with more than 15 years of experience. She is a Certified Fundraising Executive of which there are now eight in Korea. Currently, she serves as Assistant Head of School-External Relations for Seoul Foreign School. This is a newly created position for the school to strategically move the mission forward by securing resources, connecting Alumni, and communicating the impact of the 108 year legacy.

Most recently, Dawn spent six years at the Cathedral of Christ the King & School, in the USA, successfully leading the strategic and fundraising efforts of a $30million dollar (USD) campaign. The campaign included building a new 50,000 square foot building and renovating four existing buildings on an urban landlocked campus.

Dawn served many years on Board of Directors for the Association of Fundraising Professionals. In her time, she also served as the Chair for National Philanthropy Day. She is also an Alumnae of Leadership Sandy Springs.

She recently moved to Seoul and is enjoying the walking trails with her puppy Aggie.
