Biography

Henry S. Shyn is a senior foreign attorney at Yoon & Yang LLC. He graduated from the University of California at Berkeley and Boston College (J.D.). Since graduating from Boston College in 1988, Henry has worked at Cummins & White, LLP (Los Angeles, California), Yoon & Partners, Yoon & Yang LLC, and General Electric Company (GE Korea). At GE Korea, he first served as Power- Northeast Asia and ANZ Senior Counsel and then as General Counsel from 2014 until recently. His main practice areas are general corporate matters, including corporate governance and compliance, foreign investment, inbound/outbound M&A international dispute resolution, including arbitration before ICC, HKIAC, KCAB and AAA and litigation. He has abundant experience in the acquisition, implementation, integration, protection, use, licensing, marketing, and sale of technology, especially in the power related industry. With his extensive experience, he has represented clients in a number of major projects, and arbitrations involving complex issues and claims, in and outside of Korea.

Henry is an active member of International Bar Association and has served on many official capacities, recently as Chair of Asia Pacific Forum and Vice Chair of Corporate Counsel Forum.
